	12/2/2001 Heard Mr. P.Diwakary, learned counsel for the petitioner and P.S. Koshy, learned counsel for respondents. The writ petitioner is seeking a direction to be issued to respondents not to proceed with the departmental enquiry till the final report of the C.B.I is submitted. As regards this relief, learned counsel for the respondents states that complaint has been made to CBI for conducting enquiry which is at preliminary stage. The contention of the learned counsel for the respondents is that the departmental enquiry is now almost half way and it will be concluded within the next two or three months. Second relief sought for is to direct respondents to conduct the enquiry only in accordance with the provisions of law. It appears that no direction as such need to be issued in this regard inasmuch as any enquiry sought to be made contrary to provisions of law will be of no avail. However, I may state here ~~of the view~~, that enquiry initiated against the writ petitioner should be made only in accordance with the provisions of law, relevant rules and regulations prescribed in this regard. As regards the third relief, to direct respondents to permit the petitioner to operate his bank account, it has been stated by counsel for the respondents that there is absolutely no order by which the writ petitioner has been restrained from operating his bank account. If that be so, no direction is called for. As regards the forth relief to direct the respondents to pay proper allowances to the petitioner, it has been stated that his subsistence allowances have been credited in specific account maintained by the petitioner and ~~inasmuch as~~ as such there is no difficulty for the writ petitioner to withdraw from his account.

In the light of the aforesaid submission, I am of the view that this petition should be disposed of as follows:

The respondents shall conclude the enquiry immediately against the writ petitioner as early as possible and at any rate not later than 90 days from the date of receipt of this order.

Interim order, if any, stands vacated.
